Brad, Stephen & Doug Sutter

Our longevity and success can be credited to our family's core values that have been passed down over 110 years and through four generations in our craft.

Our future prosperity is dependent on our team members continuing to make everyday decisions based on these values and principles.

We expect our employees to adhere to, demonstrate, and practice these values to foster teamwork, trust, and unity.

SUTTER ROOFING

Safe, Solid & Secure Since 1902

Integrity & Ethics

We are a family owned business built on our founding principles of trust and integrity.

We expect teamwork, respect, and a positive attitude among our staff. We strive for excellence in the work we perform, and honest, respectful communication with our co-workers and customers.

Our employees shall be organized, professional in appearance, on time, and prepared for each day's work.

Our communication with both internal and external customers shall be timely and must be factual at all times.

Stewardship

We expect our team members to collaborate in meaningful ways that provide opportunities for personal growth and development. We hold each other accountable to have the courage to tell the truth and do what's right at all times in all of our business activities.

We must be good stewards of the legacy of our firm, which includes:

- Safety first - all day every day!
- Care for company equipment, vehicles, and property as if it were your own.
- Take pride in the quality of your work and cleanliness of your worksite.
- Eliminate waste of materials, supplies, and resources.
- Give back to the communities we serve and to those in need.

Safety & Risk Management

Our long history and tradition of professional competency provides the security and stability that our valued customers select repeatedly for their projects.

Our goal is a safety culture without compromise. Safety is a condition of employment with the company.

We provide training and demand accountability to build commitment to this culture.

Our commitment to safety and health extends to our customers, the public, and the environment.

Vision Statement

Experienced professionals offering premium quality roofing and sheet metal contracting services, delivered with operational excellence, providing real value for our customers and stakeholders.

Mission Statement

We will continue to apply our core values to everyday decisions, leading to the continued success and growth of our business, and strengthening relationships with our employees, customers and associates.
